

California Dressage Society Scholarship Guidelines

Chapters and members are encouraged to apply for scholarships.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Applications are available from the Central Office only and not through individual committee members.

The following are the current policies and procedures of the scholarship committee (2011).

- 1. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of merit of the proposal. All applications will be evaluated on a year by year basis. Each application will be evaluated afresh without regard to prior awards.
- 2. All applications must be typed. No handwritten applications will be accepted. You may email your applications to the Central Office at paula@california-dressage.org.
- 3. Application can be submitted anytime. If a particular application is denied it can be resubmitted for consideration at subsequent meetings. Scholarships may be considered after the fact for activities already held when those activities are judged to meet the criteria of need and merit.
- 4. All chapters must submit a current Treasurer's report with their applications.
- 5. The scholarship committee would like to encourage reduction of auditor fees to help attendance at educational events.
- 6. Scholarships will be awarded to CDS Chapters or CDS members who are domiciled in the State of California or Nevada.
- 7. The scholarship committee will hold one face-to-face meeting per year at the Annual Meeting of the California Dressage Society. Applications will be considered 4 times / year by conference call meetings if the number of applications warrant.
- 8. In order to conduct business the scholarship committee must have a quorum of members present, whether personally present or present telephonically. A quorum is four out of six committee members.
- 9. All deliberations and applications of the committee will be absolutely confidential. All deliberations will be held in closed sessions.
- 10. At the first meeting of the year, the scholarship committee will determine the money available for rider education scholarships and educational scholarship.
- 11. The amount available for scholarship will comprise 75% of the prior year's interest income and dividend income earnings. The remaining 25% will be returned to the capital of the scholarship fund.
- 12. All individual donations will be deemed donations to capital unless stipulated otherwise by the donor at the time of making the donation.
- 13. The committee will not invade capital to award scholarships except in extraordinary circumstances.

Judge Candidate Program

Judges Candidate Scholarship - deadline April 30

The committee will award this scholarship after the April 30 deadline for any applications received in the previous 12 months. Applications will be considered from April 30 to April 29 of the following year. This scholarship is available to assist aspiring judge candidates to defray some of the significant expenses related to obtaining USEF certification. It is in the interest of growing the sport of dressage to encourage qualified L Program graduates to continue their education and to become the rated judges of the future, and to assist current judges to progress to higher ratings if desired.

The committee has the potential to award $500 scholarships to multiple applicants. Funds would be made available either from the interest earnings of the Scholarship Fund, or, with Board approval, from the principal of the Fund. Availability of funds would be assessed annually to determine the total amount that can be awarded.

The annual Scholarship would be available to applicants who have been accepted into the "r", "R" or "S" level programs, or those who are already "S" and are seeking continuing education.

To be considered, applicants must have been accepted to a specific program and must produce an acceptance letter along with the dates and place where the program will be held.

At the option of the Committee, grants may be awarded to multiple candidates. The award may be used to defray program-related expenses including registration in the program itself as well as the hotel and transportation necessary to attend to the program.

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- 1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
 - 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States.
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or

• A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

• The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
